The Joesten Report

The Truth About the Assassination
of President John F. Kennedy

Lee Harvey Oswald was not the assassin of President Kennedy. He did not kill Patrolman Tippit either. Oswald was wrongfully accused and "convicted" on both counts in the worst judicial fraud in history. All the charges against him were trumped up. Material evidence was doctored, faked, or insofar as it would have favored the accused, suppressed. Witnesses were intimidated or hushed up. In some cases, statements which they had never made were put into their mouths by the police. And then the defenseless accused was railroaded to death.

These are the basic findings of a painstaking private investigation which I undertook early in December 1965, on the spot in Dallas, on behalf of a leading German magazine. Since then, I have written a book of about 100,000 words on the case which sets forth in detail why Oswald could not possibly have murdered President Kennedy or the policeman. The book will first be published in Paris (probably in May or June of this year), later also in Germany and Britain, among other countries.

My investigation also brought out, beyond a shadow of doubt, that Oswald never was a genuine Communist. His "marxism" was nothing but a pose, his propaganda for Castro a sham, his "defection" to Russia a flimsy cover for an intelligence assignment, which he bungled. Oswald went to the Soviet Union as an agent for the C.I.A., was found out and neutralized at Minsk where he worked practically as a slave laborer. Upon his return to this country, he became a stool-pigeon and agent provocateur for the F.B.I. on whose instructions he set up his phony "Fair Play for Cuba Committee" in New Orleans. At the same time, he was being trained for another intelligence mission, this time to Cuba, which he botched again.

This double failure as a secret agent made Oswald "expendable" in the eyes of his employers. And when some of the intelligence figures who had manipulated Oswald joined the conspiracy to assassinate President Kennedy, they arranged for him to be sacrificed as the most convenient scapegoat.

Oswald, demonstrably innocent of both the killings that have been attributed to him, was not a victim of judicial error. The way his case was handled by the Dallas police and district attorney excludes any possibility of an innocent mistake having been made by overzealous or inept prosecutors. The Dallas police chiefs and District Attorney Henry M. Wade knowingly and deliberately framed this innocent man because they themselves were in league with the real assassins of President Kennedy. They callously sacrificed Oswald in order to shield the real perpetrators of "the crime of the century."

These are not "wild charges." The shocking fact that Oswald's accusers were themselves implicated in the plot to assassinate the President of the United States is brought out in my book and in the present report in minute, carefully documented detail.

Expect no solid grains of truth from the Warren Commission. Its performance to date clearly shows that the mandate it has received from President Johnson is not to uncover, but to hush up the true facts about the assassination.

From all present indications, the Warren Report will be nothing but a glorified coverup heaped on top of the F.B.I.'s shoddy coverup for the crimes committed by the Dallas police.

Why, it may be asked, should President Johnson wish to keep the lid on the true circumstances of his predecessor's death? Legitimate as this question may sound, it is in fact a bit naive. Who put Lyndon Johnson in the White House? Not the ballots of the American people. The bullets of a powerful gang of fellow-Texans did.

I do not suggest that Johnson personally instigated the plot or that he actively took part in it. At this stage of my inquiry, I do not think that he was in any way directly involved. But he is the beneficiary of a crime conceived and executed by the power elite of his home state, Texas.

Thanks to the Bobby Baker scandal, Johnson was on his way out of the White House, when the Texas gang forcefully put him back with a few well-placed shots. Other factors that contributed to the decision to kill Kennedy were the resentment of the big oil interests of Texas at the late President's tax reform proposals; the wrath of the Cuban adventurers inside and outside the C.I.A. at Kennedy's moderation in the matter; the hate of fanatical segregationists of the Beckwith and General Walker stripe. The John Birch Society, rehearsing a factual version of "Seven Days in May."

The assassination of President Kennedy was more than "the crime of the century." The way it has been presented to the American people - the most gullible on earth - constitutes the most monstrous fraud ever perpetrated by officialdom and connived at by a supine, cowardly press. It was the most blatant attempt to fool all the people all the time this country has ever witnessed. So far it has achieved complete success. Historically, the perfect crime was committed on November 22, 1963.

The present report, which for the first time spells out the whole, awesome truth about the assassination, will not make glaring headlines. It is not likely ever to see the light - in this country - as a printed book. But it will make its way, I am sure, onto some library shelves where scholars of the future, endeavoring to shed some light on 20th century obscurantism, then will find the source material which the powers-that-be and the controlled news media of 1963-64 strove desperately to withhold from the public.

I am not writing this for the general public which has been securely lulled into uncritical acceptance of the preposterous Oswald Hoax. My report is destined for the few discerning and independent minds who have sensed all along that something was terribly wrong in the official version but who had no way of getting at the facts. More power to these earnest truth-seekers!

Notice to the Assassins: You can kill me, too, but you can no longer stop the truth. Every fact that will be brought out in the present report, every name that will figure in it, every hidden aspect uncovered therein, is already contained in my 320-page book manuscript due to be published in Paris soon. Numerous copies of it have been placed in safe hands throughout Europe. Anything that may happen to me will only enhance the worldwide repercussions of my expose.

P.S. Libel suits will be particularly welcome.

The Joesten Report

The Truth About the Assassination
of President John F. Kennedy

As publication of this report in book form appears unlikely in the United States in the foreseeable future (at any rate during the Johnson régime), it will be made available to a select group of American readers in the form of a limited mimeographed edition. It is to be published in successive instalments in the spring and summer of 1964, with some possible additions later.

This 100,000 to 150,000-word report will be divided into three main parts as follows:

Part I - The Frameup of Lee H. Oswald (in three volumes)

Part II - Oswald, Secret Agent (two volumes)

Part III - Why Kennedy Had to Die (two or three volumes)

In view of the tremendous amount of work involved in the preparation, writing and mimeographing of this report and the comparatively small number of copies that can be produced and sold in this non-commercial operation - I prefer, for obvious reasons, not to rely on any outside help - I am compelled to charge a fairly high price. Each volume will be priced at $10 a copy. Accordingly, Part I will cost $30 a copy, Part II $20 a copy and so forth.

However, in order to make acquisition of this documentary possible to as many public and college libraries as may care to give their clientele an opportunity to scan the uncensored facts about the assassination, a special library rate amounting to a 40% discount will be available to them. This discount will not be available to any government agency.

All orders should be addressed directly to the author and publisher, at his legal residence, as follows: Joachim Joesten, 87-70 173rd Street, Jamaica 32, New York City (Phone: OL 8-3105).

Publication of "The Frameup of Lee H. Oswald" is expected to take place in late April or early May, 1964. The three volumes of this part of the work will aggregate about 50,000 words. Tentative chapter headings: (1) That Self-Betraying Detour; (2) "Ambush Building Chosen with Care"; (3) Image of Texas Justice: Prosecutor H.M. Wade; (4) Trial by Television; (5) Presumption of Guilt; (6) The Sacred Cows; (7) Mr. Wade's Fourteen Points; (8) A Matter of Curtain Rods; (9) Could Oswald Shoot Around the Corner? (10) Unworried Killer; (11) Laughing Hyena on a Bus; (12) Police Alert Before the Crime; (13) "Secret Service Checks in Vain"; (14 and 15) Who Killed the "Good Cop?" (16) The Quarry at Bay; (17) That Monstruous Rifle Fraud.

Contents of Parts II and III will be announced later. French-reading students of the matter can save themselves a lot of money by ordering instead the trade book "Oswald, L'Impossible Assassin" which will be published in May by Editions de Trévise, Paris. Copies of this book may also be ordered from the author at the price of $4.00, plus postage.

Mrs. Tippitt:

I know that you have received many letters since the death of your husband, but I know that you probably have not received one like mine, since in spite of your country's being the most advanced in the world in all respects, it is at the same time the most backward in learning how God operates. You may say that what will be will be, but I will attempt to clearly explain.

With the assassination of the beloved and immovable President Kennedy your husband was also assassinated by the presumed assassin of the president. Have you not stopped to think that it's a little strange that, since practically all the police were concentrated in the place where the president would pass, and then finding your husband in a spot that he evidently considered likely for the suspect to pass (that is, if in those few moments, they had given a description of the suspect) and he immediately went to the Tenth St. to apprehend him, and being alone in the patrol car, apparently against a regulation requiring two patrolmen in each car. How did it happen that he was in it by himself (instead of giving him a medal for merit, he should have been chastised for not following regulations)?

You cannot find the explanation of what would have happened if someone else had been with him, and perhaps he would not be dead at this moment. Would you like me to give you a different version from that created by infantile and juvenile minds of your nation? Perhaps your husband wanted to go alone (the thing that I cannot explain is how he managed to be alone), since he was being paid to take into custody, which at that time and hour was to be taken out of the country, for example to Mexico, for which they would give him a large sum of money (all the money that they sent to you by those who think that your husband was a great man would burn my hands.) If they had reason to believe this, he would indeed be a superb policeman. But your husband, upon learning by radio what had happened did not want to be implicated in such a terrible situation such as aiding and removing from the scene the assassin of the president and for that reason when Oswald arrived first, they entered into conversation (just like the lady that saw them said) and when your husband told him that he was not going to take him anywhere, but instead was going to turn him over to the authorities, this is when your husband was shot and killed so that your husband could not inform on Oswald.

Well, Oswald killed him, but also for money, since this did not bother his conscience at all, because as the saying goes in my country, "for money, the dog will dance". And for the same reason Oswald was killed by Jack Ruby, thinking that the important man or societies behind him would get him out one way or another, even though the courts would declare him innocent for reason of insanity, the same insanity that Oswald had to kill the president since the insanity would bring the luxury of money since their intelligence in any other field would not make them rich in the right way.

It is so easy to gain wealth with a little luck and a very little work in your country, aided by your court and government. Don't believe that I do not have compassion for your unhappiness. Here in Spain there is a saying that goes "Discount whatever you don't want to believe". But if everything is true that has been said since November 22 of that immortal month we are going to have to change that saying and say "I do not believe anything that the Americans say since they believe that if they are told that a burro will fly, they will believe it and it does not seem strange to me that EX-13325 your country that burros will fly."

DATE 4-2-66

The police of Dallas and especially the chief of police who allows the assassin of your president to be killed saying that everything was all over. With the police of this country, they would have to have given all of the protection of that city. The day following the death of the president, they could have told the truth, but not the truth that everyone would have liked to have heard, and they would have had the suspect well protected not at the mercy of what happened to him by Ruby, since the police took so few precautions to such an important suspect as this one who killed the president. It appears to me that they allowed this to happen for fear that all the people would know what was behind it since they certainly would have all been in it up to their necks for their part in it, even though they say otherwise.

And if the Americans of the United States believe that the rest of the world are going to believe this story about the famous "city without law" and if what you have there is law that permits everyone to come in this area armed and without searching them it is no better than a jungle, and since the world seems to believe this, then they will also believe that I am the president in Washington.

But let us return to our previous subject. Let us suppose that your husband was a very honorable and able policeman aware of his duty, the best in the the country, which is supposing a great deal. Dont swell yourself up with pride for all the letters and donations you have received because of the death of your husband. Think of what would have happened if this would have happened by some juvenile that happens all the time in his profession. He would still be just as dead and you would not have received one letter except for close friends and family and from the bosses of your husband. Actually, all that you have received is not because of any great act by your husband except that it happened more or less at the time of the confusion at the time of the assassination which was the most tragic and cruel that has ever occurred in history. For the same reason, all that you have received is out of sentiment of the hearts of Americans for the dead president, since they could not send it to the president's wife because she has inherited a great deal from her husband and they sent this to you instead. Well, Mrs. Tippitt, if you have read this entirely, this is enough.

Affectionately yours,

Maria Luisa Marin
